Dear Parents/Guardians,

I am writing this e-mail to you to inform you of the closing of OLPH School at the end of this current school year due to low enrollment. This news comes with a heavy heart. Attached please find a letter from Bishop Murphy that is also being sent home to you in the mail today regarding the closing of our school.

Please know that the faculty and staff are here to support you during this time and will do our best to make the remainder of this school year a memorable one for your child. We assure you that we will make the transition to another Catholic school in the fall of 2012 as smooth and positive as possible.

As I receive further correspondence regarding information sessions that will be offered about Catholic schools in the surrounding area, it will be posted on our school website. I will also be in contact with you during the winter and spring months by e-mail.

God Bless You All,

Mrs. Lubrano
